

SAVE THE DATE

54th Shared Awareness and Deconfliction (SHADE) Conference 25–26 November 2026

EUNAVFOR ATALANTA and Combined Maritime Forces are pleased to announce the 54th Shared Awareness and Deconfliction (SHADE) Conference on 25th – 26th November 2026. The venue for the conference will be announced in due course.

The 54th SHADE Conference will bring together maritime security experts, policymakers, industry representatives, and international partners from across the Indian Ocean and adjacent seas. The conference aims to:

- ✓ Advance coordination and deconfliction among maritime security stakeholders through focused working groups.
- ✓ Enhance shared understanding of regional threats through the exchange of lessons identified, best practice, and operational insights.
- ✓ Support the coordination of future maritime security activities across the Indian Ocean and adjacent seas.
- ✓ Strengthen professional networks and align collective efforts to improve maritime security outcomes across the region.

Further details, including venue information, registration instructions, and the draft agenda, will be promulgated in due course.

Please save the date. We look forward to welcoming you in November.